DEATH OF MRS. S. J. WILLS

Wife of Pioneer Merchant of Maryville Will Be Buried Tomorrow—Service at Christian Church.

The funeral services of Mrs. Sarah J. Wills, 79 years old, who died yesterday afternoon at St. Francis hospital will be held at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the First Christian church. The body will lie in state at the home from 11 to 1 o'clock.

The service will be conducted by the pastor, the Rev. C. Emerson Miller. The interment will be made in Miriam cemetery.

Mrs. Wills was the widow of Jacob Wills, one of the pioneer merchants of Maryville. She was born at New Castle, Ind., October 27, 1837. Her maiden name was Sarah J. Gough. She was married to John Winn of New Castle, in 1857 and one child was born of this union. Mr. Winn died in 1861, and in 1863 his widow was married to Jacob Wills of Greenfield, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. Wills came to Maryville in 1872. Mr. Wills started in the grocery business on the present site of the Pearson drug store. He also opened the first regular restaurant in the city which he conducted for some years, and then later opened the Wills House, the first large hotel to be operated in Maryville. Mr. Wills died in this city in 1904.

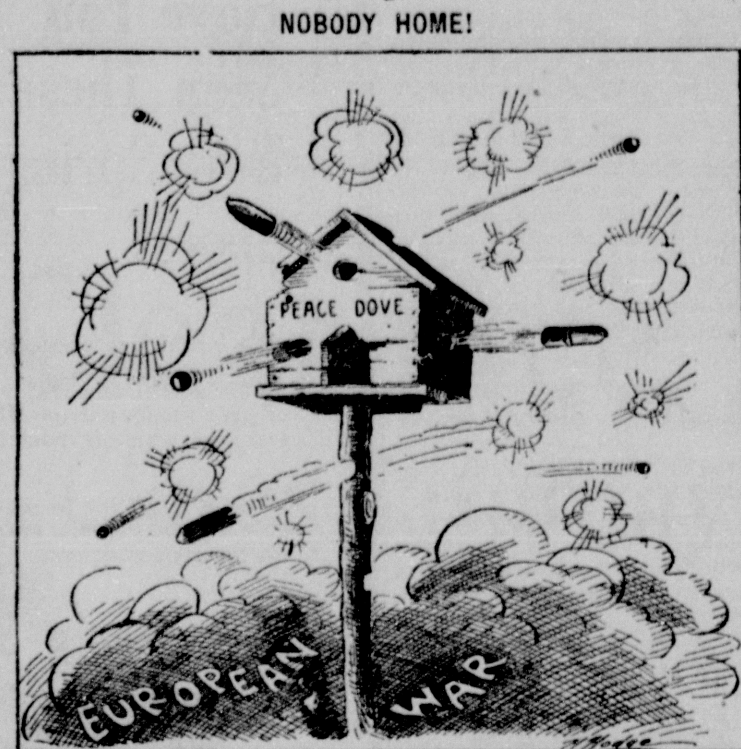

Since her early girlhood, Mrs. Wills had been a member of the Christian church and during her residence in Maryville was closely identified with the Maryville church and was an active member of the C. W. B. M.

Mrs. Wills is survived by one daughter, Mrs. M. Carter, of Burlington Junction, a half sister, Mrs. Katherine Thompson, of this city, and four grand children. They are: Glen W. Carter, who is associated with his father, Dr. M. Carter, in the drug business at Burlington Junction. Miss Audrey Carter, who is teaching in the High School at Ida Grove, Ia., Misses Sarah Marie and Lucile Mae Carter, who are attending Simpson College at Indianola, Iowa. The three granddaughters will arrive in Maryville tonight, summoned by the death of their grandmother.

Mrs. Wills had been in failing health for the past two years, but was able to look after her home duties until about a week ago when she became ill and was taken to St. Francis hospital, where her daughter was her constant attendant.

THE WEATHER.

Unsettled and warmer this afternoon and tonight, probably light rain or snow south and east central portions. Thursday partly cloudy and warmer.

'LIFE IN HEAVEN' MARTIN'S BODY HERE

DR. RICHARDSON LISTS FACTS KNOWN OF FUTURE LIFE.

REALITY, HIGHEST BELIEF

Individuality Will Be Preserved and Bodies Glorified in World to Come — Urges Preparation Now.

Dr. W. F. Richardson in his sermon on "The Life in Heaven," told his audience last night at the Christian church that there were a few things that the Lord permitted us to know about the future life.

"It is natural for us to be curious regarding the future life," said Doctor Richardson, "and yet, we need not be disappointed if many of our questions go unanswered. There is so much of mystery about this present life that we need not be surprised if that mystery becomes deeper as we face the future."

Future Life A Reality.

"And yet, there are a few things that our Heavenly Father permits us to know about the life to come. First of all, we may know that this life is a reality. There is life beyond the grave. 'If it were not so, I would have told you,' said Jesus Christ to his disciples. The instinct for life which God has planted in every human bosom demands that he should not fail to answer that desire. He who satisfies the instincts of all his humbler creatures will not betray this loftier instinct of his children, whom he has made in his own likeness."

"In the tomb of Dean Stanley, we read the inscription written by himself, 'The Inn of A Traveler On His Way to Jerusalem.' This conviction that the grave was only the briefest stopping place, has been the solace of every believer. 'Because I live, ye shall live also.' 'This is the charter of our eternal hope."

Individuality Preserved.

"Second, we may know that our individuality will be preserved. 'Death is the suspension of relations with the physical universe.' Then it will not involve the loss of personality. Dives, passing from earthly relations to those of a Hades was still the same man. Lazarus, resting in Abraham's bosom, was the same individual who had lain at Dives' gate."

"This fact, too, answers the question whether we shall know one another there. We shall surely not be more ignorant in that world than we are in this, and if with our partial knowledge we know each other here, surely in that land where we know as we are known, we shall not be strangers, not mere drops of being swallowed up in the infinite ocean, but we shall be ourselves, enjoying clearer vision, larger opportunities, holier aspirations, purer environment and infinite allurement to good."

Bodies Shall Be Glorified.

"In the third place, we may know that our bodies will be raised, re-deemed and glorified, made fit temples for our soul's eternal dwelling place. No disembodied spirits we; but each possessing 'a local habitation and a name.' We shall be able to give full effect to all our loftier ambitions, because of the perfect adjustment of the spiritual body to the spirit's will."

'LEAK' HEARING IS POSTPONED

COMMITTEE GIVEN 30 DAYS TO SUBMIT EVIDENCE.

LAWSON ENLARGES ON FIRST STORY

Again Uses Names of Lansing, Bernstorff, Baugh, and Others In "Leak" Testimony.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Washington, Jan. 17.—Representative Garrett in behalf of the "leak" committee, announced that there would be no hearing today. The announcement was made after an executive session, during which it was decided to ask the house for permission to employ counsel to conduct the examination of the witnesses. A groan went up from the audience.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The house rules committee this afternoon adopted a resolution authorizing the committee to employ counsel. It also unanimously consented to extend to 30 days the time in which the committee may report on the "leak."

Lawson again yesterday brought the names of Secretary Lansing, Count von Bernstorff and Bernard Baruch into his testimony as the men Chairman Henry had told him he had heard "leak" rumors about, and elaborated on his story told Monday regarding Henry's alleged statements concerning them.

In that connection, in answer to inquiries by Representative Garrett as to what Henry told him about "a cabinet member, a member of congress and a banker," Lawson said he never had asserted that Henry had told him anything about Secretary McAdoo, the mysterious Senator "O," and H. Pinney Fisk. The cabinet member Henry spoke of, Lawson said, was Mr. Lansing, and the banker, Baruch. The fact that Baruch is a "speculator and investor," and not a banker had led to misunderstanding in the committee regarding Lawson's previous testimony. Information which Lawson received in regard to Mr. McAdoo, Fisk and Senator "O," came from another source, which he did not reveal.

The Boston financier insisted on reciting to the committee in detail the disputed confidential conference with Chairman Henry. For more than an hour he recounted what he had said to Henry and what Henry had said to him. With regard to his testimony yesterday, bringing in the names of Secretary Lansing and Baruch, Lawson said that he had forgotten to add that Henry had told him the committee had received information concerning the substance of all of one of Secretary Lansing's alleged conversations with Baruch in New York and part of another.

More than a score of witnesses were waiting to be heard yesterday. Among them were McAdoo, Tumulty, Price, Warburg, and others whom Lawson mentioned as having knowledge of the leak. All have issued statements repudiating his testimony.

"LIFE IN HEAVEN"

"In the fourth place we shall enjoy the divine presence and likeness. 'We shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.'

"This in itself would make Heaven supremely desirable. To be like our Lord, and to have that perfect communion with Him, which would result in perfect knowledge of all his virtues and glories would leave nothing to be desired.

Degrees in Heaven's Delights.

"Finally, we shall enjoy Heaven just in the degree of our preparedness for it. As we enjoy ourselves in the art gallery in proportion to our culture in art; as the same oratorio brings greater and lesser thrills to the hearts of the hearers, so will Heaven mean more or less to us as we have cultivated more or less diligently the life of God in our hearts here on earth.

"Every man who enters Heaven will be as happy as he is capable of being. Each man may bring his cup to the same ocean of infinite love and life, and have it filled. But each man's draught of the water of life will be measured by the size of his cup.

"It is wise for the young people to begin laying up treasures in Heaven in order that the rights into whose enjoyment they enter shall be most abundant. There is no time to waste in preparing for the life in Heaven, for we are here and now determining the fullness and richness of that life, each one for himself."

This afternoon Doctor Richardson addressed the women on "An Old Fashioned Mother." His subjects for the rest of the week are: on Thursday, "The Silent Look of Jesus;" on Friday, "Today;" on Saturday afternoon at the Mission Circle meeting, "The One Hopeless War;" on Sunday morning, "Whatever He Tells You;" on Sunday evening, "The Lost Son."

W. R. Painter Confirmed.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Jefferson City, Jan. 17.—The senate this afternoon unanimously confirmed W. R. Painter as temporary warden of the penitentiary.

A dream which was worth telling is recounted by the Unionville Republican. The local I. O. O. F. hall was the scene, one night recently, of ceremonies which required a setting sun. To represent the sun a candle was placed in a hat box, which had been covered with red tissue paper. This contrivance was propped above a large picture on the west wall of the room, and the sun sank in the west very beautifully. But after the fun was all over and the guests had all gone home, one of them, Jas. Schooler, tossed restlessly on his bed and dreamed that the red sunset had turned into fire. He awoke and phoned the night watchman to see if the candle had been left burning in the Odd Fellows' hall. Sure enough it had. It had burned up the hat box and the big picture and had started a good sized blaze among the furniture. The dream was told just in the nick of time.

The big daily papers featured the news that Lee Rogers, an old man of Gallatin, was robbed of $1,000 in gold which he had carried for years in a tin bucket, but it was left for his home paper, the North Missourian, to quote the straightforward confession of Mr. Rogers concerning his loss. "I am not to be pitied," he said, "My boys tried to tell me different and repeatedly urged me to put my money in a bank. It has taught me a lesson. I always had a love for hard money and it was one of my pleasures to accumulate and keep gold. I always deposited paper money in the banks."

ADMIRAL DEWEY DIES

"Hero of Manila Bay," 79 Years Old, Passes Away at His Home in Washington.

A second national hero passed away within a week, when Admiral George Dewey died at his home in Washington yesterday afternoon. Like Col. William F. Cody, Admiral Dewey was the idol of young America, and the recipient of much admiration from the nation at large. His title, "Hero of Manila Bay," was even more firmly fixed in the American mind than that of "Buffalo Bill."

Admiral Dewey was born in Montpelier, Vt., and was 79 years old December 26 of last year.

His destruction of the Spanish fleet in the harbor of Manila in the early morning of May 1, 1898, is considered one of the most thrilling feats in American naval history. During the night Dewey had daringly steamed past coast guard batteries and through waters reported to be filled with mines. By noon the entire Spanish fleet had been destroyed without the loss of one American.

As a young man Admiral Dewey was with Farragut's squadron when it took possession of New Orleans in April, 1862. He was made a commander of the navy in April, 1872; a captain, in September, 1884; a commodore, February 9, 1896. Immediately upon the receipt of the official news of his Manila victory, Admiral Dewey was made a rear admiral and was thanked by a resolution of congress. He received the highest honor of the navy, the admiralship, March 2, 1899. Since March 29, 1900, he had been president of the General Naval Board.

Condolence Messages Received.

Washington, Jan. 17.—Messages of condolence from every part of the world reached the Dewey home today. The president conferred with Daniels in regard to the arrangements for burial, which will probably be Saturday in Arlington.

Later reports announce that the funeral of Dewey, which will be held next Saturday, will be one of the most imposing ever witnessed.

OF L. C. GOODEN, PARNELL

Editor Gooden Organizes First Independent Telephone Co. in Missouri—Has Light Plant Now.

Parnell, Mo., Jan. 16.—L. C. Gooden who organized the first independent telephone company in Missouri, has just done a bit more pioneering electrically speaking, by installing the first electric light plant in this city. The plant is a private one, used to light his printing office and his moving picture theatre, but he is receiving a number of requests to extend the service to private homes and to stores.

The first telephone extended from Sheridan pretty much covered the county and was started on $300 of borrowed money. The company was capitalized at $1,000, and every stockholder was given as return for his money invested, coupon books entitling him to use of the lines. The points touched were Sheridan, Parnell, Oxford, Enyart, Ravenwood, Clyde, Maryville, Orrsburg, Gaynor, Allison, and Hopkins. The company continued in business for about a year, selling out in 1897.—St. Joseph Gazette.

RAIDER SINKS 21 SHIPS

German Submarine Attacks One English Vessel Which Goes Down With 100 Passengers Aboard.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

London, Jan. 17.—Twelve allied vessels have fallen prey to the new German raider, it was officially announced today. Admiralty prize crews will be placed on two German ships and it is likely that they, too, were converted into raiders.

Rio De Janeiro, Jan. 17.—Dispatches today bore unconfirmed reports that a German raider sank twenty-one merchant ships. Seven other ships were reported sunk and nine captured. The raider sank an English ship, it is said, without warning, causing a loss of 400 lives. The survivors are reported at Pernambuco on a Japanese ship. The Brazilian minister of marines has undertaken an investigation to ascertain if neutrality had been violated. The raider is said to be the Vinita.

FOUND IMAGE IN CAVE.

Cave Stone Idol Probably Antedates Indian Mound Builders.

Madisonville, Ky.—E. L. Littlepage of the Morton Gap country brought to this place recently a stone image that is a curiosity and probably of historic value.

Mr. Littlepage found it at the edge of a cave on a high elevation in North Christian county, Ky., while investigating some prospective oil land belonging to him. The cave is located in a wild and broken section of land uncultivated and but thinly inhabited.

The image is rudely carved out of a tough, ferrous sandstone. It is about six inches in height and is well preserved, except for a slight injury on one side of its head and slight weathering of one arm. The figure is in a sitting position, with its legs doubled under its body and arms extended in front, with hands resting on its knees. The image is evidently a relic of an idol worshiping people and antedates any old Indian relic found in various Indian mounds in western Kentucky.

WIDOW SAVES TREES.

Turns Commissioners From Those Planted by Her Husband.

St. Cloud, Mich.—"Woodman, spare that tree; touch not a single bough." Thus quoted Mrs. Mary Spicer, widow, as she pleaded for the preservation of trees planted by her husband, long dead.

It was three years ago that Mrs. Spicer started her battle with city officials over the maintenance of this arborian inheritance. She was called upon to enter another skirmish the other day when sidewalk bids were opened, in which provision was to have been made for the removal of the trees.

Mrs. Spicer's "pets" fringe a lot on which her modest little home is built. "Wait until I am gone and you may remove them," she told the city commissioners, who took her words to heart. When sidewalk bids were opened there were proposed contracts on other jobs, but on the Widow Spicer's property—not a word.

EIGHTY, WANTS HEART BALM

Woman Is Deaf, Has Lost Right Eye and Is a Little Lame.

Utica, N. Y.—Mrs. Almira Kingsbury is just a little on the right side of eighty years old. She is rather deaf. She has lost her right eye and her left thumb. Besides she is a little lame.

But she took the stand to testify that Robert Roberts of Trenton, seventy-six years old and a farmer, had been so smitten with her charms at first sight that he urged her to marry him. Then she said she broke truth and she sued for breach of promise. They met at an employment agency where he sought a housekeeper.

Judge Hazard told Mrs. Kingsbury's attorney, "I think your client is clearly entitled to about 6 cents." However, the case was held open for more evidence.

MUSKRATS CUT MEAT PRICE.

Serve as Substitute in Many Families of Moderate Means in New Jersey.

Alloway, N. J.—Muskrats are cutting the high cost of living in this region. With the price of meats hitting the high spots, there is an unprecedented demand for their carcasses, commonly known as "water rabbits."

Trappers, who this season are securing on an average of nearly $1 each for muskrat pelts, are adding considerable extra revenue to their usual season's profits by selling the meat to villagers and to outside buyers. It is estimated that an average of 3,000 "water rabbits" are disposed of every week in Salem alone, where they serve as a substitute for meat in many families of moderate means.

BOTTLE DRIFTS 6,600 MILES.

Determines Currents Off South American Coast.

Seattle, Wash.—After drifting 6,600 miles in the south Pacific a bottle containing a position report from the steamship Eureka of Seattle thrown overboard off the Peruvian coast by Captain J. E. Gupitill, the vessel's master, Feb. 9, 1915, was found March 1, 1916, on the beach at Tamassua, Yasawa group, Fiji Islands.

There has been a difference of opinion among mariners as to the set of the current off the coast of South America, and the finding of the message is of great value, as it determines the direction of the flow of ocean water in that part of the world.

HOGS CLIMB ORANGE TREES.

Fruit Diet Pleases the Swine Best, but Not the Orchardist.

Riverside, Cal.—W. H. Bacchus has chased his hogs out of his orange grove. He's tired of having them climbing in the orange trees.

After some oranges were blown from the trees by the wind the hogs passed up the usual pasturage and, standing on their hind feet, ate all the golden balls they could reach. Then some of them began to climb trees.

"Nix on this orange fed pork," said Bacchus as he arranged for a new pasture.

Minister Travels by Submarine.

Paris.—General Hubert Lyautey, the minister of war in the new French cabinet, arrived in Paris after a voyage full of incidents from Morocco, where he was French resident general. The new minister crossed from Tangier to Gibraltar in a submarine, and his train was delayed by the snow in Spain, thus obliging him to decline King Alfonso's invitation to dinner.

IF Ivory Soap were no purer, milder, or higher grade than ordinary soaps it still would be far more pleasant to use because of its lather.

The Ivory lather is formed quickly. It is thick and copious so that the entire body can be covered easily. It holds together and lasts so that the skin can be massaged thoroughly without having the soap become dry and stiff. And it is rinsed away as quickly as it is made because it contains no unsaponified oil to make it stick to the skin.

If you have been using soap that gives a thin, inadequate lather, the Ivory lather will be a revelation.

part of the refreshments. And about a third of the old men drank rather freely. One of the great moral dangers of the place is that everyone drinks and smokes.

Within the first week, however, we had the names of twenty-one of the thirty new men on a resolution calling upon the American Club to discontinue the serving of alcoholic liquors under its auspices. It stirred up a bitter fight and the drinkers used the "do as Romans do," the famous Oxford tolerance, and all the usual personal liberty arguments. The drys held that such a condition was not representative of present American public opinion and was offensive to a large per cent of the membership. Enough old men lined up to appear to insure victory but the decision has not been reached yet.

Will Irwin, Speaker.

Will Irwin, well-known magazine writer, was the principal speaker at the first meeting of the American club. This is one of the principal features of the club's work. The other primary one is the subscribing for all of the leading American magazines and newspapers, so we keep up with U. S. thought and life although about two weeks behind. The English papers have little in them except war news and the markets.

The value of a name was shown when most of the new Americans put their money in Lloyds, which has a branch in every important English town. I changed my American money into English gold in New York. It produced a smile of welcome whenever offered over here. Their banking system is very similar except that they usually write dates thus: "27 Oct. '16."

Go To Methodist Church.

A group of the Methodists hunted up their church on the first Sunday but it did not seem much more satisfactory than the college chapels. I could see little or no difference between the Methodist order of worship here and that of the low-church Episcopalians in America. In the Church of England service used in the college chapels, the chief object appears to be speed. One college boasts of a Dean who can conduct the morning worship in ten minutes and the evening in eleven.

One of the most interesting things I have done was patronizing a "hair-dressing saloon." I was given a hair cut, shave and shampoo, all for thirty cents. But that was all it was worth. The chairs were no better than those used by loafers in a sheriff's office at home and less comfortable.

An English Haircomb.

But it was worth the whole shilling and threepence to get my hair combed. The place really looks more like a machine shop than a barber shop for pulleys, belts and other equipment are suspended from the ceiling. When they are ready to comb one's hair, they start the motor, attach a large roller brush to the head and iron down the hair.

It was the first time that my stubborn bristles had ever met their match. That was a week ago and my hair still lies down as docile as a dude's. For my next letter, I shall continue with a recital of curious things seen in the everyday life of the people.

CITY MANAGER PLAN

"ENABLING ACT" FIRST STEP IN THE NEW LEGISLATION.

MISSOURI LEAGUE FORMED

Purpose of New Organization Was to Father the Bill That Is Now Before the Legislature.

The agitation in favor of the city manager plan of municipal government in Missouri is a recent thing. The first step toward making possible the adoption of this method by cities in this state was taken in the Forty-eighth General Assembly, two years ago, when a bill providing for an optional law, or "enabling act" as it has been popularly termed, was introduced by Representative A. T. Drumm of Cole county.

The act provides for the plan to include only cities of the third class, or cities with a population not less than 2,000 nor more than 20,000. Thus Columbia falls within the limitations imposed. The same bill is now before the Forty-ninth Assembly.

League Works For New Plan.
The Missouri City Manager League was formed last December to father the bill that is now before the Legislature. R. C. Journey, instructor in political science in the University, who is now serving as legislative reference librarian under a leave of absence from the University, is secretary-treasurer of the organization. A committee of the league has been appointed to further its interests at Jefferson City.

The first move that a city must make to begin the city manager plan, under the provisions of the proposed Missouri act, is to obtain the signatures of 25 per cent of the electors voting in the last preceding municipal election for mayor. These names are signed to a petition asking for the submission of the question to the voters. The mayor is required, upon presentation of their petition, to issue a proclamation calling for a vote. The act specifies that the vote shall be cast at a special election within sixty days after the petition is filed.

Councilmen Three or Five.
The City Manager plan provides for the election of three or five councilmen. At the same time that the citizens vote on whether the city shall adopt the manager plan, they ballot on whether there shall be three or five councilmen. A simple majority of the votes cast is sufficient to sanction the adoption of the plan and to decide the size of the council. After the notification of the secretary of state that the city has voted to adopt this plan, nominations for positions on the council may be filed.

The election of councilmen must take place, under the proposed Missouri act, within six months after the adoption of the act by the city, meaning that the city manager plan can be established eight months after the presentation of the petition. The election must take place at the first municipal voting after the date of adoption, if this comes within the six-month limit. A special election will otherwise be called by the mayor. If the plan is not adopted, the act specifies that the city shall not vote upon the measure again for one year.

How Councilmen are Picked.
The names of candidates—chosen beforehand in a primary election—equal to twice the number of councilmen to be selected must appear on the ballot. The citizen will vote for as many candidates as there are places to fill, scratching out the names of those he does not wish to vote for.

All persons eligible for councilmen under the present laws governing cities of the third class are eligible to serve as councilmen under the city manager plan. The term of office for the councilmen is three years. At the first election, however, if three men are chosen, it is specified that the man receiving the highest vote shall serve for three years and the two others shall serve for two years and one year in order of their ranking total vote. In case a council of five men is being chosen, the man with the smallest vote is elected for one year, and two for each of the longer terms. This distributes the election of a new council over three years, insuring the keeping of part of the experienced body in office until the newly elected members have learned their duties.

The election of councilmen must be non-partisan. The councilmen must be elected at large, although ward and precinct boundaries are kept for convenience in voting. The selection of the city manager, the virtual head of the city's government, under this new plan, is vested in the council.—The Daily Missourian of Columbia, Mo.

LAMM'S PETITION DENIED

Missouri General Assembly By Vote of 103-71 Says There Are No Grounds for Contest.

Jefferson City, Jan. 17.—The Missouri General Assembly by a party vote of 103 to 71 last night denied the petition of Judge Henry Lamm, Republican, contesting the election of Frederick D. Gardner, Democrat, to the office of governor.

The Democrats voted down the minority report asking that a committee be named to investigate charges of fraud. The majority report declared the contest of Lamm was not brought in good faith; that it was not his free and voluntary act; that it was not brought for the purpose of purifying the ballot; and that it was not supported by the Republican state committee. They also said that Mr. Lamm had been coerced in bringing about the contest by political pressure.

The charges in the petition of Mr. Lamm as to the election irregularities were characterized as extravagant and unwarranted. The Kansas City man who said he had voted thirty-nine times was declared to be a drug user.

Body of William King Described as Left Handed Both Inside and Out.

St. Louis.—The body of William King, which has been preserved for twenty months, is described by an anatomist as "left handed, both inside and out," according to a statement made public at the City hospital.

Id May, 1915, King, who was thirty-five years old, applied at the hospital for treatment. He said he was a laborer and had lived most of his life in Wisconsin. He was suffering from typhoid fever.

When asked who should be notified in case of his death King said: "Don't worry about that. Just cut me up and examine my body. There's something wrong with me besides the fever."

He died a few days later. When surgeons made an examination of the body they found one of the most abnormal cases in the history of surgery. The heart was on the right side, the liver on the left; the appendix was on the left side and the spleen on the right. The stomach was turned around completely. On the left lung were three lobes; the right lung had but two. The left kidney was larger and lower than the right one.

DANCE TO WIRELESS MUSIC MILES AWAY

Phonograph at High Bridge, N. Y., Heard All Over House at Morristown, N. J.

New York.—What was declared to be the world's first wireless dance was held at 20 Morris avenue, Morristown, N. J., the home of Theodore E. Gaty, vice president of the Fidelity and Casualty Insurance company of this city. His two sons—John P. and Theodore E. Gaty, Jr., the latter home from Cornell for the Christmas holidays—got up a dance and throughout the evening the seven or eight couples who had been invited danced to music that was played on a phonograph in High Bridge, at the northern end of Manhattan, about forty miles away from Morristown by air line.

Mr. Gaty and his sons are enthusiastic amateurs in the science of radio telephony and telegraphy. A friend, P. F. Godley of Montclair, who is a radio engineer, made use of the Lee de Forest audion detector and the sound amplifier invented by Dr. Edwin H. Armstrong of Columbia, the inventions which made transcontinental telephony possible, as well as a wireless telephone message to Honolulu. Mr. Godley, who is only twenty-seven years old, adapted the two devices to amateur use and attached them to a phonograph horn in the Gaty home.

The phonograph that furnished the dance music was played in the High Bridge plant of the De Forest Radio Telephone and Telegraph company, and the musical sound waves were received by the amateur receiver over Mr. Gaty's house.

When the faint sounds, which, coming from the receiver, could scarcely be detected by the ear, passed through the combined sound amplifiers and then through the megaphone they could be heard all over the house.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative. No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them, 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

DEATH OF MRS. S. J. WILLS

Wife of Pioneer Merchant of Maryville Will Be Buried Tomorrow—
Service at Christian Church.

The funeral services of Mrs. Sarah J. Wills, 79 years old, who died yesterday afternoon at St. Francis hospital will be held at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the First Christian church. The body will be in state at the home from 11 to 1 o'clock.

The service will be conducted by the pastor, the Rev. C. Emerson Miller. The interment will be made in Miriam cemetery.

Mrs. Wills was the widow of Jacob Wills, one of the pioneer merchants of Maryville. She was born at New Castle, Ind., October 27, 1837. Her maiden name was Sarah J. Gough. She was married to John Wynn of New Castle, in 1857 and one child was born of this union. Mr. Wynn died in 1861, and in 1863 his widow was married to Jacob Wills of Greenfield, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. Wills came to Maryville in 1872. Mr. Wills started in the grocery business on the present site of the Pearson drug store. He also opened the first regular restaurant in the city which he conducted for some years, and then later opened the Wills House, the first large hotel to be operated in Maryville. Mr. Wills died in this city in 1904.

Since her early girlhood, Mrs. Wills had been a member of the Christian church and during her residence in Maryville was closely identified with the Maryville church and was an active member of the C. W. B. M.

Mrs. Wills is survived by one daughter, Mrs. M. Carter, of Burlington Junction, a half sister, Mrs. Katherine Thompson, of this city, and four grand children. They are: Glen W. Carter, who is associated with his father, Dr. M. Carter, in the drug business at Burlington Junction. Miss Audrey Carter, who is teaching in the High School at Ida Grove, Ia., Misses Sarah Marie and Lucile Mae Carter, who are attending Simpson College at Indianola, Iowa. The three granddaughters will arrive in Maryville tonight, summoned by the death of their grandmother.

Mrs. Wills had been in failing health for the past two years, but was able to look after her home duties until about a week ago when she became ill and was taken to St. Francis hospital, where her daughter was her constant attendant.

Claude Glass Improves.

Claude Glass, who underwent an operation at St. Francis hospital for appendicitis is reported as improved today.

ENGLISH DEVOTION

MASSSES HAVE FAITH IN WAR'S OUTCOME, SAYS NASH.

AMERICANS IN "WAR"

Great Danger In Serving Liquors At Clubs Faced by the Students
In England.

(Vernon Nash)

Oxford.—The great depression of spirit which came to most of the Americans in the first week was more than homesickness. One cannot live at the mouth of hell and not be singed. It affects me powerfully when I start on a trot to a tennis court to meet one or more men in hospital uniform with a leg or arm gone, sometimes sightless or with a large part of the face shot away. And we only see the best cases upon the street, of course.

But the devotion of the great mass of people is astonishing. Absolutely not one able-bodied student in Oxford had to be conscripted. They had already gone voluntarily before that act came into effect. Oriel College has five hundred men fighting and has already given up one hundred of her finest students and graduates.

Card in Each Home.

A card is placed in the window of each home for every man who has enlisted. One often sees three and four cards in one window. I read yesterday of a vicar who had lost his fourth and last son. Surely this is what Lincoln called the "last full measure of devotion." And their confidence is superb. It is no longer a question of who will win the war in any circles I have mixed. It is merely a question of how long and the great majority think that it can't be more than a year.

We have not been heckled as we feared we would be. The only time it has happened was as we cycled out of Penzance a man cried from the sidewalk: "Why aren't you in the army?" It is more surprising that they are as considerate of us when their conviction is so strong that they are fighting the battle of civilization against barbarism. Rhodes Scholars have made a good impression by serving in the ambulance corps. I have applied with about a dozen others of the new men for a commission in the American Ambulance Red Cross work around Paris for the six weeks of the Christmas vacation. This is almost certain to be granted as they are short of men in the winter so I shall probably be writing you a letter of Paris in war time.

Americans Have Another War.

But the Americans have another war on their hands just now which is interesting them as much as the "big push." Most of the new men were astonished at the opening of the American Club to see booze served as a

'LIFE IN HEAVEN' MARTIN'S BODY HERE

DR. RICHARDSON LISTS FACTS
KNOWN OF FUTURE LIFE.

REALITY, HIGHEST BELIEF

Individuality Will Be Preserved and Bodies Glorified in World to Come
—Urges Preparation Now.

Dr. W. F. Richardson in his sermon on "The Life in Heaven," told his audience last night at the Christian church that there were a few things that the Lord permitted us to know about the life to come.

"It is natural for us to be curious regarding the future life," said Doctor Richardson, "and yet, we need not be disappointed if many of our questions go unanswered. There is so much of mystery about this present life that we need not be surprised if that mystery becomes deeper as we face the future."

Future Life A Reality.

"And yet, there are a few things that our Heavenly Father permits us to know about the life to come. First of all, we may know that this life is a reality. There is life beyond the grave. 'If it were not so, I would have told you,' said Jesus Christ to his disciples. The instinct for life which God has planted in every human bosom demands that he should not fail to answer that desire. He who satisfies the instincts of all his humbler creatures will not betray this loftier instinct of his children, whom he has made in his own likeness."

"In the tomb of Dean Stanley, we read the inscription written by himself, 'The Inn of a Traveler On His Way to Jerusalem.' This conviction that the grave was only the briefest stopping place, has been the solace of every believer. 'Because I live, ye shall live also.' This is the charter of our eternal hope."

Individuality Preserved.

"Second, we may know that our individuality will be preserved. 'Death is the suspension of relations with the physical universe.' Then it will not involve the loss of personality. Dives, passing from earthly relations to those of a Hades was still the same man. Lazarus, resting in Abraham's bosom, was the same individual who had lain at Dives' gate."

"This fact, too, answers the question whether we shall know one another there. We shall surely not be more ignorant in that world than we are in this, and if with our partial knowledge we know each other here, surely in that land where we know as we are known, we shall not be strangers, not mere drops of being swallowed up in the infinite ocean, but we shall be ourselves, enjoying clearer vision, larger opportunities, holier aspirations, purer environment and infinite allurement to good."

Bodies Shall Be Glorified.

"In the third place, we may know that our bodies will be raised, re-deemed and glorified, made fit temples for our soul's eternal dwelling place. No disembodied spirits we; but each possessing 'a local habitation and a name.' We shall be able to give full effect to all our loftier ambitions, because of the perfect adjustment of the spiritual body to the spirit's will."

'LEAK' HEARING IS POSTPONED

COMMITTEE GIVEN 30 DAYS TO SUBMIT EVIDENCE.

LAWSON ENLARGES ON FIRST STORY

Again Uses Names of Lansing, Bernstorff, Baruch, and Others In "Leak" Testimony.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Washington, Jan. 17.—Representative Garrett in behalf of the "leak" committee, announced that there would be no hearing today. The announcement was made after an executive session, during which it was decided to ask the house for permission to employ counsel to conduct the examination of the witnesses. A groan went up from the audience.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The house rules committee this afternoon adopted a resolution authorizing the committee to employ counsel. It also unanimously consented to extend to 30 days the time in which the committee may report on the "leak."

Lawson again yesterday brought the names of Secretary Lansing, Count von Bernstorff and Bernard Baruch into his testimony as the men Chairman Henry had told him he had heard "leak" rumors about, and elaborated on his story told Monday regarding Henry's alleged statements concerning them.

In that connection, in answer to inquiries by Representative Garrett as to what Henry told him about "a cabinet member, a member of congress and a banker," Lawson said he never had asserted that Henry had told him anything about Secretary McAdoo, the mysterious Senator "O," and H. Pinney Fisk. The cabinet member Henry spoke of, Lawson said, was Mr. Lansing, and the banker, Baruch. The fact that Baruch is a "speculator and investor," and not a banker had led to misunderstanding in the committee regarding Lawson's previous testimony. Information which Lawson received in regard to Mr. McAdoo, Fisk and Senator "O," came from another source, which he did not reveal.

The Boston financier insisted on reciting to the committee in detail the disputed confidential conference with Chairman Henry. For more than an hour he recounted what he had said to Henry and what Henry had said to him. With regard to his testimony yesterday, bringing in the names of Secretary Lansing and Baruch, Lawson said that he had forgotten to add that Henry had told him the committee had received information concerning the substance of all of one of Secretary Lansing's alleged conversations with Baruch in New York and part of another.

More than a score of witnesses were waiting to be heard yesterday. Among them were McAdoo, Tumulty, Price, Warburg, and others whom Lawson mentioned as having knowledge of the leak. All have issued statements repudiating his testimony.

"LIFE IN HEAVEN"

"In the fourth place we shall enjoy the divine presence and likeness. We shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is."

"This in itself would make Heaven supremely desirable. To be like our Lord, and to have that perfect communion with Him, which would result in perfect knowledge of all his virtues and glories would leave nothing to be desired."

Degrees in Heaven's Delights.
"Finally, we shall enjoy Heaven just in the degree of our preparedness for it. As we enjoy ourselves in the art gallery in proportion to our culture in art; as the same oratorio brings greater and lesser thrills to the hearts of the hearers, so will Heaven mean more or less to us as we have cultivated more or less diligently the life of God in our hearts here on earth."

"Every man who enters Heaven will be as happy as he is capable of being. Each man may bring his cup to the same ocean of infinite love and life, and have it filled. But each man's draught of the water of life will be measured by the size of his cup."

"It is wise for the young people to begin laying up treasures in Heaven in order that the rights into whose enjoyment they enter shall be most abundant. There is no time to waste in preparing for the life in Heaven, for we are here and now determining the fullness and richness of that life, each one for himself."

This afternoon Doctor Richardson addressed the women on "An Old Fashioned Mother." His subjects for the rest of the week are: on Thursday, "The Silent Look of Jesus;" on Friday, "Today;" on Saturday afternoon at the Mission Circle meeting, "The One Hopeless War;" on Sunday morning, "Whatever He Tells You;" on Sunday evening, "The Lost Son."

GRAND JURY ACTIVE

Many Witnesses All Over the County Awaiting Examination.

Many witnesses for the grand jury from all over the county were here today waiting to be examined. No information about the work of the grand jury has been given out but from the number of witnesses examined the work is being well done to find out infractions of the law.

John Pralwater was excused by the court as a member of the grand jury. H. W. Hull was named in his place.

W. R. Painter Confirmed.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.
Jefferson City, Jan. 17.—The senate this afternoon unanimously confirmed W. R. Painter as temporary warden of the penitentiary.

A dream which was worth telling is recounted by the Unionville Republican. The local I. O. O. F. hall was the scene, one night recently, of ceremonies which required a setting sun. To represent the sun a candle was placed in a hat box, which had been covered with red tissue paper. This contrivance was propped above a large picture on the west wall of the room, and the sun sank in the west very beautifully. But after the fun was all over and the guests had all gone home, one of them, Jas. Scholer, tossed restlessly on his bed and dreamed that the red sunset had turned into fire. He awoke and phoned the night watchman to see if the candle had been left burning in the Odd Fellows' hall. Sure enough it had. It had burned up the hat box and the big picture and had started a good sized blaze among the furniture. The dream was told just in the nick of time.

The big daily papers featured the news that Lee Rogers, an old man of Gallatin, was robbed of $1,000 in gold which he had carried for years in a tin bucket, but it was left for his home paper, the North Missourian, to quote the straightforward confession of Mr. Rogers concerning his loss. "I am not to be pitied," he said, "My boys tried to tell me different and repeatedly urged me to put my money in a bank. It has taught me a lesson. I always had a love for hard money and it was one of my pleasures to accumulate and keep gold. I always deposited paper money in the banks."

ADMIRAL DEWEY DIES

"Hero of Manila Bay," 79 Years Old, Passes Away at His Home in Washington.

A second national hero passed away within a week, when Admiral George Dewey died at his home in Washington yesterday afternoon. Like Col. William F. Cody, Admiral Dewey was the idol of young America, and the recipient of much admiration from the nation at large. His title, "Hero of Manila Bay," was even more firmly fixed in the American mind than that of "Buffalo Bill."

Admiral Dewey was born in Montpelier, Vt., and was 79 years old December 26 of last year.

His destruction of the Spanish fleet in the harbor of Manila in the early morning of May 1, 1898, is considered one of the most thrilling feats in American naval history. During the night Dewey had daringly steamed past coast guard batteries and through waters reported to be filled with mines. By noon the entire Spanish fleet had been destroyed without the loss of one American.

As a young man Admiral Dewey was with Farragut's squadron when it took possession of New Orleans in April, 1862. He was made a commander of the navy in April, 1872; a captain, in September, 1884; a commodore, February 9, 1896. Immediately upon the receipt of the official news of his Manila victory, Admiral Dewey was made a rear admiral and was thanked by a resolution of congress. He received the highest honor of the navy, the admiralty, March 2, 1899. Since March 29, 1900, he had been president of the General Naval Board.

Condolence Messages Received.

Washington, Jan. 17.—Messages of condolence from every part of the world reached the Dewey home today. The president conferred with Daniels in regard to the arrangements for burial, which will probably be Saturday in Arlington.

Later reports announce that the funeral of Dewey, which will be held next Saturday, will be one of the most imposing ever witnessed.

OF L. C. GOODEN, PARNELL

Editor Gooden Organizes First Independent Telephone Co. in Missouri—Has Light Plant Now.

Parnell, Mo., Jan. 16.—L. C. Gooden who organized the first independent telephone company in Missouri, has just done a bit more pioneering electrically speaking, by installing the first electric light plant in this city. The plant is a private one, used to light his printing office and his moving picture theatre, but he is receiving a number of requests to extend the service to private homes and to stores.

The first telephone extended from Sheridan pretty much covered the county and was started on $300 of borrowed money. The company was capitalized at $1,000, and every stockholder was given as return for his money invested, coupon books entitling him to use of the lines. The points touched were Sheridan, Parnell, Oxford, Enyart, Ravenwood, Clyde, Maryville, Orrsburg, Gaynor, Allison, and Hopkins. The company continued in business for about a year, selling out in 1897.—St. Joseph Gazette.

RAIDER SINKS 21 SHIPS

German Submarine Attacks One English Vessel Which Goes Down With 400 Passengers Aboard.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.
London, Jan. 17.—Twelve allied vessels have fallen prey to the new German raider, it was officially announced today. Admiralty prize crews will be placed on two German ships and it is likely that they, too, were converted into raiders.

Rio De Janeiro, Jan. 17.—Dispatches today bore unconfirmed reports that a German raider sank twenty-one merchant ships. Seven other ships were reported sunk and nine captured. The raider sank an English ship, it is said, without warning, causing a loss of 400 lives. The survivors are reported at Pernambuco on a Japanese ship. The Brazilian minister of marines has undertaken an investigation to ascertain if neutrality had been violated. The raider is said to be the Vinita.

WILL INCREASE ARMY.

England Calling Its Young Men From Agriculture and Other Pursuits. Special to The Democrat-Forum.

London, Jan. 17.—Measures were taken by the government to increase the English army. The young men are being withdrawn from agriculture and other pursuits. The unofficial estimate of the number of these agriculturalists, newly summoned is about 60,000. All members under 20 years of age, who are engaged in the shoe-making business have been summoned to the colors, also.

Try Musterole. See How Quickly It Relieves

You just rub Musterole in briskly, and usually the pain is gone—a delicious, soothing comfort comes to take its place. Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Use it instead of mustard plaster. Will not blister. Many doctors and nurses use Musterole and recommend it to their patients. They will gladly tell you what relief it gives from sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bite, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). Always dependable.

FOUND IMAGE IN CAVE.

Cave Stone Idol Probably Antedates Indian Mound Builders.

Madisonville, Ky.—E. L. Littlepage of the Morton Gap country brought to this place recently a stone image that is a curiosity and probably of historic value.

Mr. Littlepage found it at the edge of a cave on a high elevation in North Christian county, Ky., while investigating some prospective oil land belonging to him. The cave is located in a wild and broken section of land uncultivated and but thinly inhabited.

The image is rudely carved out of a tough, ferrous sandstone. It is about six inches in height and is well preserved, except for a slight injury on one side of its head and slight weathering of one arm. The figure is in a sitting position, with its legs doubled under its body and arms extended in front, with hands resting on its knees.

The image is evidently a relic of an idol worshipping people and antedates any old Indian relic found in various Indian mounds in western Kentucky.

WIDOW SAVES TREES.

Turns Commissioners From Those Planted by Her Husband.

St. Cloud, Mich.—"Woodman, spare that tree; touch not a single bough."

Thus quoted Mrs. Mary Spicer, widow, as she pleaded for the preservation of trees planted by her husband, long dead.

It was three years ago that Mrs. Spicer started her battle with city officials over the maintenance of this arborian inheritance. She was called upon to enter another skirmish the other day when sidewalk bids were opened, in which provision was to have been made for the removal of the trees.

Mrs. Spicer's "pets" fringe a lot on which her modest little home is built. "Wait until I am gone and you may remove them," she told the city commissioners, who took her words to heart. When sidewalk bids were opened there were proposed contracts on other jobs, but on the Widow Spicer's property—not a word.

EIGHTY, WANTS HEART BALM

Woman Is Deaf, Has Lost Right Eye and Is a Little Lame.

Utica, N. Y.—Mrs. Almira Kingsbury is just a little on the right side of eighty years old. She is rather deaf. She has lost her right eye and her left thumb. Besides she is a little lame.

But she took the stand to testify that Robert Roberts of Trenton, seventy-six years old and a farmer, had been so smitten with her charms at first sight that he urged her to marry him. Then she said he broke troth and she sued for breach of promise. They met at an employment agency where he sought a housekeeper.

Judge Hazard told Mrs. Kingsbury's attorney, "I think your client is clearly entitled to about 6 cents." However, the case was held open for more evidence.

MUSKRATS CUT MEAT PRICE.

Serve as Substitute in Many Families of Moderate Means in New Jersey.

Alhway, N. J.—Muskrats are cutting the high cost of living in this region. With the price of meats hitting the high spots, there is an unprecedented demand for their carcasses, commonly known as "water rabbits."

Trappers, who this season are securing on an average of nearly $1 each for muskrat pelts, are adding considerable extra revenue to their usual seasonal profits by selling the meat to villagers and to outside buyers. It is estimated that an average of 3,000 "water rabbits" are disposed of every week in Salem alone, where they serve as a substitute for meat in many families of moderate means.

BOTTLE DRIFTS 6,600 MILES.

Determines Currents Off South American Coast.

Seattle, Wash.—After drifting 6,600 miles in the south Pacific a bottle containing a position report from the steamship Eureka of Seattle thrown overboard off the Peruvian coast by Captain J. E. Gupitil, the vessel's master, Feb. 9, 1915, was found March 1, 1916, on the beach at Tamasua, Yasawa group, Fiji islands.

There has been a difference of opinion among mariners as to the set of the current off the coast of South America, and the finding of the message is of great value, as it determines the direction of the flow of ocean water in that part of the world.

HOGS CLIMB ORANGE TREES.

Fruit Diet Pleases the Swine Best, but Not the Orchardist.

Riverside, Cal.—W. H. Bacchus has chased his hogs out of his orange grove. He's tired of having them climbing in the orange trees.

After some oranges were blown from the trees by the wind the hogs passed up the usual pasture and, standing on their hind feet, ate all the golden balls they could reach. Then some of them began to climb trees.

"Nix on this orange fed pork," said Bacchus as he arranged for a new pasture.

Minister Travels by Submarine.

Paris.—General Hubert Lytautey, the minister of war in the new French cabinet, arrived in Paris after a voyage full of incidents from Morocco, where he was French resident general. The new war minister crossed from Tangier to Gibraltar in a submarine, and his train was delayed by the snow in Spain, thus obliging him to decline King Alfonso's invitation to dinner.

IF Ivory Soap were no purer, milder, or higher grade than ordinary soaps it still would be far more pleasant to use because of its lather.

The Ivory lather is formed quickly. It is thick and copious so that the entire body can be covered easily. It holds together and lasts so that the skin can be massaged thoroughly without having the soap become dry and stiff. And it is rinsed away as quickly as it is made because it contains no unsaponified oil to make it stick to the skin.

If you have been using soap that gives a thin, inadequate lather, the Ivory lather will be a revelation.

part of the refreshments. And about a third of the old men drank rather freely. One of the great moral dangers of the place is that everyone drinks and smokes.

Within the first week, however, we had the names of twenty-one of the thirty new men on a resolution calling upon the American Club to discontinue the serving of alcoholic liquors under its auspices. It stirred up a bitter fight and the drinkers used the "do as Romans do," the famous Oxford tolerance, and all the usual personal liberty arguments. The dyes held that such a condition was not representative of present American public opinion and was offensive to a large per cent of the membership. Enough old men lined up to appear to insure victory but the decision has not been reached yet.

Will Irwin, Speaker.

Will Irwin, well-known magazine writer, was the principal speaker at the first meeting of the American club. This is one of the principal features of the club's work. The other primary one is the subscribing for all of the leading American magazines and newspapers, so we keep up with U. S. thought and life although about two weeks behind. The English papers have little in them except war news and the markets.

The value of a name was shown when most of the new Americans put their money in Lloyds, which has a branch in every important English town. I changed my American money into English gold in New York. It produced a smile of welcome whenever offered over here. Their banking system is very similar except that they usually write dates thus: "27 Oct. 16."

Go To Methodist Church.

A group of the Methodists hunted up their church on the first Sunday but it did not seem much more satisfactory than the college chapels. I could see little or no difference between the Methodist order of worship here and that of the low-church Episcopalians in America. In the Church of England service used in the college chapels, the chief object appears to be speed. One college boasts of a Dean who can conduct the morning worship in ten minutes and the evening in eleven.

One of the most interesting things I have done was patronizing a "hair-dressing saloon." I was given a hair cut, shave and shampoo, all for thirty cents. But that was all it was worth. The chairs were no better than those used by loafers in a sheriff's office at home and less comfortable.

An English Haircomb.

But it was worth the whole shilling and threepence to get my hair combed. The place really looks more like a machine shop than a barber shop for pulleys, belts and other equipment are suspended from the ceiling. When they are ready to comb one's hair, they start the motor, attach a large roller brush to the head and iron down the hair.

It was the first time that my stubborn bristles had ever met their match. That was a week ago and my hair still lies down as docile as a duds. For my next letter, I shall continue with a recital of curious things seen in the every-day life of the people.

CITY MANAGER PLAN

"ENABLING ACT" FIRST STEP IN THE NEW LEGISLATION.

Purpose of New Organization Was to Father the Bill That Is Now Before the Legislature.

The agitation in favor of the city manager plan of municipal government in Missouri is a recent thing. The first step toward making possible the adoption of this method by cities in this state was taken in the Forty-eighth General Assembly, two years ago, when a bill providing for an optional law, or "enabling act" as it has been popularly termed, was introduced by Representative A. T. Drumm of Cole county.

The act provides for the plan to include only cities of the third class, or cities with a population not less than 3,000 nor more than 20,000. Thus Columbia falls within the limitations imposed. The same bill is now before the Forty-ninth Assembly.

League Works For New Plan.

The Missouri City Manager League was formed last December to father the bill that is now before the Legislature. R. C. Journey, instructor in political science in the University, who is now serving as legislative reference librarian under a leave of absence from the University, is secretary-treasurer of the organization. A committee of the league has been appointed to further its interests at Jefferson City.

The first move that a city must make to begin the city manager plan, under the provisions of the proposed Missouri act, is to obtain the signatures of 25 per cent of the electors voting in the last preceding municipal election for mayor. These names are signed to a petition asking for the submission of the question to the voters. The mayor is required, upon presentation of their petition, to issue a proclamation calling for a vote. The act specifies that the vote shall be cast at a special election within sixty days after the petition is filed.

Councilmen Three or Five.

The City Manager plan provides for the election of three or five councilmen. At the same time that the citizens vote on whether the city shall adopt the manager plan, they ballot on whether there shall be three or five councilmen. A simple majority of the votes cast is sufficient to sanction the adoption of the plan and to decide the size of the council. After the notification of the secretary of state that the city has voted to adopt this plan, nominations for positions on the council may be filed.

The election of councilmen must take place, under the proposed Missouri act, within six months after the adoption of the act by the city, meaning that the city manager plan can be established eight months after the presentation of the petition. The election must take place at the first municipal voting after the date of adoption, if this comes within the six-month limit. A special election will otherwise be called by the mayor. If the plan is not adopted, the act specifies that the city shall not vote upon the measure again for one year.

How Councilmen are Picked.

The names of candidates—chosen beforehand in a primary election—equal to twice the number of councilmen to be selected must appear on the ballot. The citizen will vote for as many candidates as there are places to fill, scratching out the names of those he does not wish to vote for.

All persons eligible for councilmen under the present laws governing cities of the third class are eligible to serve as councilmen under the city manager plan. The term of office for the councilmen is three years. At the first election, however, if three men are chosen, it is specified that the man receiving the highest vote shall serve for three years and the two others shall serve for two years and one year in order of their ranking total vote. In case a council of five men is being chosen, the man with the smallest vote is elected for one year, and two for each of the longer terms. This distributes the election of a new council over three years, insuring the keeping of part of the experienced body in office until the newly elected members have learned their duties.

The election of councilmen must be non-partisan. The councilmen must be elected at large, although ward and precinct boundaries are kept for convenience in voting. The selection of the city manager, the virtual head of the city's government, under this new plan, is vested in the council.—The Daily Missourian of Columbia, Mo.

LAMM'S PETITION DENIED

Missouri General Assembly By Vote of 103-71 Says There Are No Grounds for Contest.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Jefferson City, Jan. 17.—The Missouri General Assembly by a party vote of 103 to 71 last night denied the petition of Judge Henry Lamm, Republican, contesting the election of Frederick D. Gardner, Democrat, to the office of governor.

The Democrats voted down the minority report asking that a committee be named to investigate charges of fraud. The majority report declared the contest of Lamm was not brought in good faith; that it was not his free and voluntary act; that it was not brought for the purpose of purifying the ballot; and that it was not supported by the Republican state committee. They also said that Mr. Lamm had been coerced in bringing about the contest by political pressure.

The charges in the petition of Mr. Lamm as to the election irregularities were characterized as extravagant and unwarranted. The Kansas City man who said he had voted thirty-nine times was declared to be a drug user.

Body of William King Described as Left Handed Both Inside and Out.

St. Louis.—The body of William King, which has been preserved for twenty months, is described by an anatomist as "left handed, both inside and out," according to a statement made public at the City hospital.

Id May, 1915, King, who was thirty-five years old, applied at the hospital for treatment. He said he was a laborer and had lived most of his life in Wisconsin. He was suffering from typhoid fever.

When asked who should be notified in case of his death King said: "Don't worry about that. Just cut me up and examine my body. There's something wrong with me besides the fever."

He died a few days later. When surgeons made an examination of the body they found one of the most abnormal cases in the history of surgery. The heart was on the right side, the liver on the left; the appendix was on the left side and the spleen on the right. The stomach was turned around completely. On the left lung were three lobes; the right lung had but two. The left kidney was larger and lower than the right one.

DANCE TO WIRELESS MUSIC MILES AWAY

Phonograph at High Bridge, N. Y., Heard All Over House at Morristown, N. J.

New York.—What was declared to be the world's first wireless dance was held at 29 Morris avenue, Morristown, N. J., the home of Theodore E. Gaty, vice president of the Fidelity and Casualty Insurance company of this city.

His two sons—John P. and Theodore E. Gaty, Jr., the latter home from Cornell for the Christmas holidays—got up a dance and throughout the evening the seven or eight couples who had been invited danced to music that was played on a phonograph in High Bridge, at the northern end of Manhattan, about forty miles away from Morristown by air line.

Mr. Gaty and his sons are enthusiastic amateurs in the science of radio telephony and telegraphy. A friend, P. F. Godley of Montclair, who is a radio engineer, made use of the Lee de Forest audio detector and the sound amplifier invented by Dr. Edwin H. Armstrong of Columbia, the inventions which made transcontinental telephony possible, as well as a wireless telephone message to Honolulu. Mr. Godley, who is only twenty-seven years old, adapted the two devices to amateur use and attached them to a phonograph horn in the Gaty home.

The phonograph that furnished the dance music was played in the High Bridge plant of the De Forest Radio Telephone and Telegraph company, and the musical sound waves were received by the amateur receiver over Mr. Gaty's house.

When the faint sounds, which, coming from the receiver, could scarcely be detected by the ear, passed through the combined sound amplifiers and then through the megaphone they could be heard all over the house.

FROM MISSOURI TO PANAMA.

Bottle Found After Being Six Months Afloat.

Hartsville, Mo.—A list of names which a party of Springfield normal school students sealed in a soda pop bottle which was thrown into the James river at Turner, Mo., last June has been returned in a letter received by Miss Opal Pope of this place, one of the young women whose names were on the list.

The letter was written by a member of the crew of the United States ship Raleigh, which reached San Francisco recently after being stationed off the coast of Panama. The writer said he found the bottle on the beach while in Panama.

School Children Plan Farm For Worn-out Hobbies.

Youngstown, O.—Members of the Junior Humane society here have contributed the nucleus of a fund which they will raise to rent or buy a rest farm for worn-out horses.

It is planned to have the farm for use next summer. Many school children have pledged support to the fund getting project, and senior humane workers expect their little associates will succeed in their plans.

BANK INSURES ASSETS

FOR TWENTY-FOUR HOURS

New York.—A $90,000,000 protective insurance policy for twenty-four hours was purchased by the Chatham and Phoenix National bank to cover the transfer of its assets from 192 Broadway to the new offices of the bank in the Singer building, a distance of about a block and a half. About $16,000,000 in cash was carried to the new quarters in an armored car, with armed guards at the front and rear, and there were guards stationed every fifty feet between the two buildings.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them, 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Guinn and daughter, Mary and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guinn of Bedison were among the out-of-town people in Maryville yesterday.
